

E12 – A complete rendering example

This example is an adaptation of the Vulkan Tutorial sample. Several features have been removed:

- Staging buffers
- Selection of the format for the Depth Buffer
- Window resizing and Swap-chain recreation

Each function of the code has been linked in the comments to the lesson where it has been described. This can be a possible starting point for the exam project.